
State errors use exact rotation angles and the same learned finite-grid Hamiltonian. T costs include the modelled synthesis allowance; no hardware was executed. Overlapping error curves are expected when product-formula error dominates. Infidelity values below 10^{-15} are displayed at 10^{-15}.