
Phase errors are measured before rotation synthesis. T counts use the stated synthesis model; panel B allocates half the target to synthesis.