
All panels: total error target 0.01, half allocated to rotation synthesis. Baseline = lowest T count among implemented Walsh, QROM and SelectSwap circuits.

Synthetic and learned potentials are separated. Lines connect measured configurations; no quantum advantage or asymptotic crossover is inferred.